

NATURAL RESOURCE CENTER

WILLAPA
NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE

“Where Community and Nature Come Together”

at the Willapa National Wildlife Refuge in Long Beach, Washington

Willapa National Wildlife Refuge encompasses diverse salt marshes, muddy tideflats, rain-drenched old growth forests, and dynamic coastal dunes and beaches.

It is also rich in wildlife and recreation opportunities.

The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service and the Willapa National Wildlife Refuge invite you to contribute your ideas to design a new Natural Resource Center for our community.

We are seeking input from you to help meet our goals to:

- Create a modern accessible refuge center
- Inspire education both indoors and outdoors
- Expand trail connections and systems
- Showcase the refuge's uniqueness
- Create community space
- Address essential emergency needs earthquake/tsunami assembly area

WE INVITE YOU to join us for the second of three community meetings to provide input on the new Natural Resource Center.

Who: Those interested in contributing your ideas

When: Wednesday, May 17, 2017
5:00 - 7:00 p.m.

Where: Pacific Coast Cranberry Museum
2907 Pioneer Rd.
Long Beach, WA 98631

For more information, please visit:

<http://www.willapanaturalresourcecenter.com/>

Andy Zahn

USFWS

USFWS

USFWS

USFWS